

Spring Term

We will also be exploring pointillism, and different materials.

We will look at different job roles through sensory exploration.

Numeracy - using numbers as labels and for counting. Looking at building number sentences. Introducing column addition and subtraction.

Literacy - we are going to learn how to count syllables and through sensory exploration engage in poetry.

Physical Development - building on our ball skills to aim at a target and defend against an attacker.

